Include in your prayers our President, state, local, federal leaders and first responders and volunteers who will be responsible for rescue and aid.

"By "Anonymous"- Marriage.
"Last week I asked for prayer for my marriage. I am still asking. My husband is still confused about his sexual identity, (whether he wants to be with me or with a man). He is a Christian, which is why this is so difficult for me to understand. He knows God's word, but Satan has him so twisted, he can't see anything. He is still living at home, which is hard, but I love him. He has a counseling session tomorrow alone at 10:45

EST Please pray that God will open his heart to hearing the truth and accept it as truth. Also, that his counselor (Christian counselor), will hear the prompting of the Holy Spirit and will be guided and directed in what to say. I do not want a divorce, but I do want to see the look of love and passion that was once in my husband's eyes when he looked at me. Please pray God will deliver him of this stronghold on his life and that Satan will be bound from confusing him anymore. I do think he wants to be released; he just isn't sure what to be released from 5/20/2005.

Pray for Carol to be more loving of her Husband, willing to spend time with him, to forgive him of whatever has cause the distance in their relationship. Pray for her salvation. Her husband is a Christian, loves her and their 5 children but is growing very tired of this long time relational problem. They are going through counseling 3/5/2005.

Pray the Lord heals my husband John's liver disease, heals Sandra's inoperable brain tumor, blesses Stephanie with a good husband, heals Kathy's infirmities, sends an army of angels to stand with Jeff and me as God leads us to victory over our enemies, and God blesses me and Jeff with everything we are asking for from our enemies, pray God delivers John and me from the EDD Audit (and all tax problems) the way the Lord made the Egyptians vanish in the desert in Genesis 14. The Lord blesses my family financially as we will be out of money in 2 weeks - this will take a miracle. Pray the Lord blesses Sandra, Steve, Stephanie, Aaron, Erica, John, Kathy, Sarah, JJ, Pete, Dan, Nancy, Justin, Chris, Linda, Dennis, Bradley, Alice, Mohammad, Kathy, DAve, Mary, Rick, Jean Williams, MaryJo, Jerry, Joan, Susan, Bob, Jeff B. Mary, Dave, Don, Rita and Mildren as the Lord promises in Psalms 91, the Lord provides for all their needs, blesses them financially, blesses them all with jobs, blesses them with security, love, wisdom, trust, comfort, peace, joy, and where they may be lacking the Lord God fills them up.

Lord, nothing is impossible to You. You have promised in Your Word to meet all of our need according to Your riches in Glory and that by Christ Jesus. We all need miracles in our lives in regards to finances. I am asking that You supply our need and grant us favor. I am also asking that You give us wisdom if we are missing something in the way that You would work this out . Help us, Lord to be delivered and set free from this bondage.

I also stand for angels to surround them - first send forth warring angels to chase every demonic spirit and influence away from their property and their belongings. Then, Lord I am asking that You station warriors around them to do warfare in their behalf as they seek You concerning their matters. Father, by Your Spirit, release ministering spirits to them .. spirits of praise and worship, spirits of wisdom and knowledge, and open their eyes Lord that they might see their deliverance.

I lift up my prayers in the name and blood of Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour,

AMEN, Paulie 2/10/2005

'Horrific' Iraq deaths shock US

The US has condemned the killing and dismembering of four American civilian security contractors in Iraq.

The White House said it deplored the "horrific attacks" but vowed the US would not be deflected from its mission to bring democracy to Iraq.

The four were shot and burnt in their cars in Falluja, before a cheering crowd dismembered the corpses and hung two of them from a bridge. 4/1/2004

Thieves take cancer child's drugs

Thieves have stolen a seven-year-old cancer sufferer's television, computer and medication during a break-in at his home in Baillieston, Glasgow.

Police said the youngster's family had been left "shattered" by the theft.

"The wee boy is housebound so he relies on his television and computer for entertainment," said Detective Jackie Ferrie of Shettleston Police Office. Police warned that the drugs - stolen between 2000 GMT on Saturday and 0400 GMT on Sunday - could be fatal.

"Whilst the medication will be replenished, obviously it is very important that it is not used by anyone other than who it was intended for," said Detective Ferrie. Four bottles of dihydrocodine were stolen, along with dihydrocodine and valium tablets. "Members of the public are advised that the drugs, if consumed or administered incorrectly, could prove dangerous if not fatal," said a spokesperson for the Strathclyde force. Pray for the boy and replacements of all that was stolen and for the stolen drugs to not be given out to harm someone and for the thieves to be captured

Pray for Mel Gibsons movie The Passion of the Christ to motivate many to accept Jesus as Lord of their life. Pray for believers to not miss this opportunity to tell as many as possible to go see the movie and be available to answer the questions that will follow afterwards. May this outreach cause a major increase of people in God's family.

The people of Bam, Iran, are trying to rebuild their lives after a 6.7 earthquake shook the ancient city on Dec. 26, leaving more than 30,000 dead and 80,000 homeless. Many residents continue to search through piles of rubble where their homes once stood in the hope of salvaging a few precious possessions. Pray for a shift in religious thinking so that they earnestly seek the Lord Jesus Christ to help them with their circumstances and remain loyal to Him the rest of their lives.
