Prayer Warrior pray request: My brother who is 34 and just joined the Army. He is a man of God and had a failed marriage that left him broke financially and heartbroken emotionally, and he found the military as his best option to pick up the pieces and establish a good, solid career as well. When his marriage fell apart he also lost his faith community, though amazingly so, he does not seem to have lost his faith at all, praise God. I know that at the base he has spoken with a chaplain, which is great. I pray that this new opportunity of a career in the Army work out well for him, that he persevere, and that he find a new faith community as well.

The second prayer request is for my boyfriend, who was recently laid off and has been interviewing and very actively seeking work, please pray that God find the right job in the right place for him.

Please keep my moms cousin in prayer as she is in the early stages of Alzheimers disease.

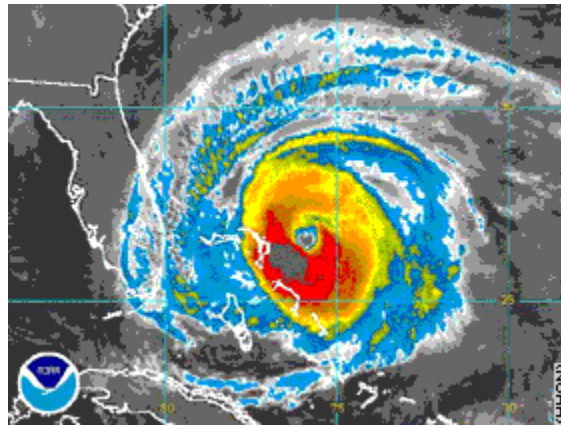

Please keep my friend Tracey in prayer as she is pursuing her Masters in Social Work, working full-time and raising a son.

Please keep my friend Donnas husband in prayer as in the past year, he had surgery including stitches in his leg, plus he lost all his top teeth and got a top denture, plus he was dealing with vertigo and vomiting for awhile, and finally, he had surgery of his carotid artery, and will need the same surgery again soon for the carotid artery on the other side of his neck.

And finally, please keep me in prayer as my financial situation, which seemed to have improved, has taken a turn for the worse, and I am worried that I will not be able to pay off the last 6 months on my car while keeping up with my rent, utilities, and many bills 10/5/2004.
